Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Board of Directors
Desiring God

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating information on pages 10 and 11, which is the responsibility of management, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and, accordingly, we do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on it.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Nature of Business

The mission of Desiring God is to help people everywhere understand and embrace the truth that God is most glorified in us when we are most satisfied in him. The core strategy of Desiring God is to corral, curate, and freely spread John Piper content through a maximally useful website. This consists of items such as audio and video sermons, blog, books, ebooks, and apps. In addition, Desiring God oversees Children Desiring God, which publishes children's educational curricula and coordinates conferences.

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the activities of Desiring God and Children Desiring God, LLC. The consolidation is due to the Organization's control of Children Desiring God, LLC as the sole member of the LLC. All intercompany transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Financial Statement Presentation

Net assets and revenues, gains, and losses of the Organization are classified based on donor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Organization and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted – Resources over which the board of directors has discretionary control. Designated amounts represent those revenues which the board has set aside for a particular purpose.

Temporarily Restricted – Those resources subject to donor imposed restrictions which will be satisfied by actions of the Organization or passage of time. The organization does not have any temporarily restricted net assets during the current year.

The Organization has elected to present temporarily restricted contributions, which are fulfilled in the same calendar year, within the unrestricted net asset class.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes all cash balances and highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less. The Organization deposits its temporary cash investments in high credit quality financial institutions. At times, such investments may be in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance limits.

Accounts and Other Receivables

Receivables are stated at realizable value. The Organization provides an allowance for bad debts using the allowance method, which is based on management judgment considering historical information. Services are sold on an unsecured basis. An allowance is provided for accounts when a significant pattern of uncollectibility has occurred. When all collection efforts have been exhausted, the accounts are written off against the written allowance. At June 30, 2014, all amounts were considered collectible and no allowance was deemed necessary.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Inventory

Inventory consisting of religious books and materials is valued at current cost utilizing a weighted average method of accounting.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation of property and equipment is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful asset lives (shorter of asset life or lease term for leasehold improvements). Depreciation expense for the year ended June 30, 2014 was $64,293.

Accounting Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Deferred Revenue

Payments received by the Organization for conferences held in future periods are deferred and subsequently recognized as revenue in the year for which the payment applies.

Functional Expenses

Salaries and related expenses are allocated based on job descriptions and the best estimates of management. Expenses, other than salaries and related expenses, which are not directly identifiable by program or supporting service, are allocated on the best estimates of management.

Subsequent Events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Organization has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through December 10, 2014, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 TAX EXEMPT STATUS

The Organization qualifies as a tax-exempt organization described in Section 501(c)(3) and is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. As such, it is subject to federal and state income taxes on net unrelated business income.

The Organization adopted the income tax standard for uncertain tax positions. No liability was recognized by the Organization as a result of the standards implementation. The Organization's 2013, 2012, and 2011 tax years are open for examination by the IRS. The entity files as a tax-exempt organization. Should that status be challenged in the future, all years since inception could be subject to review by the IRS.

NOTE 3 NET ASSETS RELEASED FROM RESTRICTION

Net assets released from purpose restrictions during the year ended June 30, 2014 was $227,842.

The Organization exercised their option to terminate the lease in accordance with the terms of the lease agreement, effective October 31, 2013. In June 2013, Desiring God and Children's Desiring God entered into new lease agreements. Desiring God's lease terminates on October 31, 2020 and Children's Desiring God's lease terminates on May 31, 2014, with the option to renew.
